

Andres J. Washington

From: Bettwy, Greg <bettwyg@si.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, July 30, 2024 4:28 PM
To: Andres J. Washington
Subject: RE: The Significance of Rare NCIC Fingerprint Classifications

Dear Mr. Washington,

Secretary Bunch received your message, and he asked me to respond to you on his behalf and thank you for sharing this information with us. We have forwarded it to the National Museum of African American History and Culture as well.

He appreciates your sharing this with the Smithsonian.

With best regards,

Greg Bettwy

Greg Bettwy | Chief of Staff to the Secretary

he/him/his/Mr.

Phone: 202.633.6287

Cell: 202.552.9506

Email: bettwyg@si.edu

From: Andres J. Washington <director@dermatoglyphics.com>
Sent: Saturday, July 27, 2024 11:27 AM
To: Smithsonian Secretary <SmithsonianSecretary@si.edu>
Subject: The Significance of Rare NCIC Fingerprint Classifications

External Email - Exercise Caution

Lonnie G. Bunch III
Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution
PO Box 37012
SI Building, Room 153, MRC 010
Washington, DC 20013-7012

Dear Mister Secretary:

This new discovery may be to your interest!

<https://www.dermatoglyphics.com/Rare.pdf>

Sincerely,
Andrés J. Washington
Fingerprint Geometric Analysis

director@dermatoglyphics.com

